LUXURY

They made us believe that luxury was found only with few!
For it is expensive, exclusive, and unattainable they knew!!

Now we realize that they were in all those little things!
For their values and worth that it perpetually brings!!

It lies on having not stepping in the hospital till now!
Keeping healthy and able to walk with the feeling of wow!

Strolling on the streets and breathing without a mask.
Meeting with family and friends whenever our conscious ask!

Found in smiles, looks, hugs, kisses but not in cheats,
With extending hand for the homeless on the streets!!

Basking every morning with warmth of sunrise.
With forgetful sleep at nights is that entire prize!

Luxury is the privilege of loving and being loved.
Creating place in the heart and never be rubbed!

Oozing pleasure when looking out at blade of grass.
Or enjoying tracking mountains with a risk at mass!

Is this the bliss we all are looking for with glittering eyes?
That is always there in the surrounding and never flies!
